Do you have any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings, which would not be filtered in line with current guidance? Yes No

What is Filtering on DBS Disclosures ?

Certain old and minor cautions and convictions may no longer appear on a disclosure. They are filtered out and an employer is no longer entitled to know about them.

What Conviction Information will not be filtered ?

The following conviction information will continue to appear on a disclosure. If you have one of these you must answer YES to this question:

- All cautions and convictions for serious violent and sexual offences; and other specified offences of relevance for posts concerned with safeguarding children and vulnerable adults, will continue to appear on a disclosure. (A full list of such offences is available on the DBS website)
- Cautions given less than 2 years ago (where the individual was under 18 at the time of caution)
- Cautions given less than 6 years ago (where the individual was over 18 at the time of caution)
- Where the individual has more than one conviction offence, all convictions will appear. No offences will be filtered.
- Convictions that resulted in a custodial sentence (regardless of whether served)
- Convictions given less than 11 years ago (where individual was over 18 at the time of conviction)
- Convictions given less than 5.5 years ago (where individual was under 18 at the time of conviction)

DECLARATION

I confirm that the information that I have provided in support of this application is complete and true and understand that knowingly to make a false statement for this purpose may be a criminal offence.
